

Toro

WAP-pages / Paul Nas / Last updated in 2005

This Malinke rhythm from the Siguiri region in Guinea was originally played after the initiation of boys; a group of boys has been together for three months ('on camp') and have learned all the rules and practices of life as an adult (including recognizing botany and bird sounds). Some time after the circumcision, a big fire is made and Toro is played; formerly played without djembé 's, but with the wasssamba..
